

Daily Legislative Update - House Committee Chairs and Leadership

Thursday, November 29, 2018

The Indiana General Assembly's makeup is a little clearer today as the House of Representatives finalized their committee chairmanship and leaders. These individuals will play an integral role throughout the legislative session, as they will ultimately be the ones who decide whether a bill makes it to the floor for a vote, or dies in the committee room. As we grow closer to the session's January start date, we will be updating you with committee appointments for those across the hall when the Senate makes that information available.

Available here are the aforementioned committees and their chairs along with House Republican leadership.