

Daily Legislative Update

Tuesday, March 5, 2019

It was a relatively quiet day at the Statehouse on Monday, as much of House and Senate member's time was spent celebrating Hoosiers via resolutions. Everyone from high school student athletes to decorated community leaders flooded the hallways and would eventually have their rightful day in the spotlight. Legislators then sent off a number of bills to committees where additional amending and debating awaits. Stay tuned as more schedules will be made public through the IGA's website below.

Committee schedules will gradually ramp back up starting today now that nearly all bills have made it through first reading in the new house. House Employment & Veteran Affairs will be the only two committees gathering for the House today at 8:30 and 10:30AM respectively. Across the hall, the Senate's Appropriations and Criminal Law committees will meet at 8:30 and 9AM. Both Houses will meet for session at 1:30PM.
