

Daily Legislative Update

Wednesday, March 20, 2019

A packed Committee Day awaits the General Assembly, with 13 total committee meetings on today's agenda. We'll see a short break in bills passing 3rd reading since neither house is scheduled to convene for session, but expect Thursday to provide another opportunity for legislators to push even more bills through before adjourning for the weekend.

Today the collective focus inside the Statehouse will be on the State's gaming industry. This session's "kitchen sink" gaming bill that includes the potential relocation of two Gary casino licenses among other things, will be heard in House Public Policy at 3:30PM. Chairman Smaltz has decided that today's hearing will only include testimony and that any potential amendments to the legislation will be heard at a later date. To view the hearing, follow along with the the House Committee Webcast link below.

House Education and Transportation Committees will kickoff this morning at 8:30AM, followed by the Senate Health and Judiciary at 9AM. For all of today's scheduled meeting times, please use the House & Senate committee schedules that we've provided. Both the House and Senate will gather tomorrow for session.
