

Daily Legislative Update

Wednesday, March 27, 2019

Another Wednesday means another Committee Day for the General Assembly, with 13 total on today's agenda. As we saw earlier this week with the bias crimes amendment, more and more bills will be stripped and or amended in committees to include language from a bill that was previously defeated. Many times these amendments are entirely unrelated to the original bill's language, but stakeholders within the Statehouse insert their language in hopes of giving it a second life. Amendments will continue to pop up, often times with little announcement, so be sure to stay up to date with both house's calendars below.

First up this morning will be House Education at 8:30AM, followed by Senate Health/Provider Services and Judiciary at 9AM. Headlining the day's committees is the second appearance of SB552 (gaming) in Public Policy at 3:30PM. It will be amend and vote only, so members will not be taking public testimony. Each committee can be live streamed using the webcast links provided.
