

Daily Legislative Update

Tuesday, April 2, 2019

The 2019 legislative session rolls on today, with another seven committees set to gather prior to session. Bills are continuing to sail through 3rd reading and onto the governor's desk for signature or to conference committees, so expect that list to grow even more throughout this week. Members of the General Assembly put a sizable dent in this week's floor agenda by sending another 19 proposals through 3rd reading yesterday. To view each chamber's floor debate on all bills, please follow along by using the House/Senate Floor Webcast links provided.

As previously mentioned, committee report deadlines arrive next week, 4/9 for the House and 4/11 for the Senate. Keep these dates in mind as legislators from both houses will need to have all language amended into bills and prepared for floor debate prior to their arrival.

Today's committee schedule will be lead off by House Employment, Human Affairs and a Govt. Reduction Select Committee, all meeting at 8:30AM. The Senate will follow with their chamber's Homeland Security and Tax/Fiscal Policy Committees at 9 & 10:30AM respectively. Both houses will hold session in the 1:30PM time slot.
