

Daily Legislative Update

Wednesday, April 3, 2019

Committee Day is here again and a full bill of committee meetings lay ahead for Indiana Legislators. In total, 13 are set to meet and members will continue to chip away at the remaining list of bills still sitting in their respective committees. Though a number of bills are set for "Amend and Vote Only", the majority will hold public testimony as this is one of the last opportunities for constituents and fellow legislators to plead their case on proposals.

The process of selecting members for Conference Committees has begun, so be on the lookout for these to be posted by leadership from both houses. These committees are comprised of one Republican and one Democrat from each chamber and will act as the final stop in the legislative process. The version of the bill that comes out from these meetings will then be sent back to each floor for a vote before being sent to the Governor's desk.

First up this morning will be the House Education, Insurance and Transportation Committees, all meeting at 8:30AM. Senate Health and Judiciary committees will follow at 9AM. Neither house will meet for session today. For a full list of the today's committee meetings, please follow along with the House/Senate Schedules below.
