

Daily Legislative Update

Monday, April 22, 2019

Today begins what is expected to be the final week of the 2019 legislative session. As previously mentioned, word within the statehouse is that the majority of heavy lifting will be wrapped up by some time on Wednesday, with Thursday ending in Sine Die. Members of the General Assembly will have added inspiration to wrap session this week, as the NRA Convention begins Thursday in the state's capital, leaving many traveling legislators out of their temporary homes.

Almost 20 bills are scheduled for conference committees throughout today, so legislators are engaging in their own form of cramming with this session's finale looming. The all inclusive gaming bill is due up this morning at 10AM and it is expected to have all of its language removed from SB552 and inserted into HB1015. Lawmakers are required to have all bills that have a tax or fiscal component to be passed through as a House bill, thus requiring the aforementioned changes. Stay tuned for a conference committee report that will be posted through the Conference Committee Schedule link below. House members will gather for session at 10AM and the Senate will follow this afternoon at 1:30PM.
