

Daily Legislative Update

Wednesday, May 2, 2019

It's now been a week since the Indiana legislature reached Sine Die and the list of bills being signed into law by Governor Holcomb continues to grow. Barring any vetoes, this trend will continue until each bill that made a successful trip through the legislative process receives a signature. Below you will find a link titled Governor Holcomb Bill Watch where you can find each bill that has been signed and the date by which all remaining bills will need to be acted on. Keep in mind that the Governor has seven days from the time a bill hits his desk before it needs to be signed, vetoed or let become law without his signature.
