

Daily Legislative Update

Thursday, February 22, 2018

After today, the legislature only has 2 ½ weeks left to finish their business (Sine Die, March 14, 2018) before the last gavel falls and the campaign season begins. There is still the possibility of an early finish but signs aren't pointing that way right now. Legislators will head home to their districts for the weekend and face committee deadlines next week.

The deadline for House committee activities is Tuesday, February 27 and the Senate is Thursday, March 1. At that point in the process, all bills will need to be out of committee, or that specific bill number will be dead for the session. Language that has passed one house is eligible for conference committee.

Floor and Session Information:

The House will reconvene today at 10 AM and the Senate at 1:30 PM. Make sure to check the links below for the most up to date committee postings. Don't forget, all committee and floor action can be viewed online.

Upcoming Dates:

Monday, March 5, is the third reading deadline in the House and Tuesday, March 6, is the third reading deadline in the Senate. March 14, by state statute, is the date session must Sine Die.
