

Daily Legislative Update

Thursday, March 1, 2018

Hello March.....session really is coming to a close. Today marks the end of the only full month during a short legislative session. Both chambers will meet today and then recess for the weekend. When they return next week, third reading deadlines will be Monday for the House and Tuesday for the Senate. The next step in the process is conference committees and there won't be many. Campaign season is right around the corner. Have a great weekend!!

Floor and Session Information:

The House will convene today at 10 AM and the Senate will reconvene at 1:30 PM.

Upcoming Dates:

Monday, March 5, is the third reading deadline in the House and Tuesday, March 6, is the third reading deadline in the Senate. March 14, by state statute, is the date session must Sine Die.
