

A Road Map for INARF Member Assistance

Although we work in a changing industry, our driving force has, and will always be our loyal members. We hope our Road Map will provide assistance to our members when questions arise.

Life is a journey, let INARF be your guide!

Public Policy

- Access to State agencies
- Federal and State Legislation
- Federal and State Regulation
- Legislative visits and outreach
- Local government outreach and funding
- Tax incentives

Staff contact: Katy Stafford-Cunningham, Katy@inarf.org

Membership

- Database access and profile maintenance
- Engagement in Corporate Committees, Professional Interest Sections and Workgroups
- Membership Benefits
- Professional Development opportunities, including:
 - o Pre & Annual Conference - Sponsorship, Exhibitors, Artisans and Presentations
 - o DSP Series
 - o Leadership Academy
 - o Professional Interest Section Meetings
- Recruitment, Retention and Renewal
- Support with INARF communications and website resources

Staff contact: Nanette Hagedorn, Nanette@inarf.org

Strategic Planning

- Best practices
- Board presentations
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Organizational structure

Staff contact: John Barth, John@inarf.org

A Road Map for INARF Member Assistance

Provider Relations

- Certification
- Complaint process
- Provider re-approval

Staff contact: Brian Carnes, Brian@inarf.org

Program Areas

Case Management - Brian Carnes, Brian@inarf.org

- Funding
- Lifecourse Framework
- Person Centered Individualized Support Plan
- Regulatory Compliance

Children's Services - Katy Stafford-Cunningham, Katy@inarf.org

- Department of Child Services
- Early Head Start
- First Steps
- Head Start

Day Supports - Brian Carnes, Brian@inarf.org

- Billing
- Community Habilitation
- Facility Habilitation
- Funding
- Regulatory Compliance

Employment - Phillip Parnell, Phillip@inarf.org

- 14c and Sheltered Workshops
- Billing
- Department of Workforce Development
- Establishment Projects
- Funding
- Pre-Employment Transition Services
- Pre-Vocational - Regulatory Compliance
- Vocational Rehabilitation
- Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act

Residential - Brian Carnes, Brian@inarf.org

- Billing
- Funding
- Housing
- Regulatory Compliance
- Supervised Group Living
- Waiver